Walking Tour of Boston’s historic Haymarket!

Friday February 16th, 1:30pm
(meet in Dudley House lobby to head to the T)

Get to know Boston through its centuries-old open-air market! Kenneth Turino, manager of Community Engagement and Exhibitions at Historic New England, will take us on a walking tour of some of the district's most acclaimed vendors and hear about its extraordinary history (with tastes along the way!)

Presented as part of Historic New England's Everyone's History series, The Haymarket Project.

Event is outdoors, and tickets are $10
RSVP now (space is limited!)
